Counterfeit is everywhere and unfortunately PLRT is no exception

In the name of PLRT certificates institutions are selling certificates.

A newly founded PLRT centre has completely copied Amarantos and also giving trainings in the name of International Practitioners License from IPHM.

Would you as a client want to go to someone who just got certified for having paid? For example there are some bombastic acronyms following such therapists names such as LBL, IPHM UK and what not.

Getting those certificates is as simple as spending just 49 pounds on a website such as these. <https://www.iphm.co.uk/> or as an institute spend 149 pounds and then distribute these certificates to anyone who just pays you.

We feel very sorry that PLRT is meeting this fate.

Would you go to a therapist who has got his certificate using these cheap means?

Amarantos however takes pride that, that institute has copied us, letting us know that we've set a benchmark.
